IT’S OFFICIAL
Ashgrove’s most popular series!

Geronimo Stilton series

A fantastic adventure series for our junior school readers with many titles in our general collection. The differing fonts throughout the text provide a great opportunity to share the reading with your child.

Wimpy Kid series

A favourite of both the reluctant and the more confident readers, these wildly popular books take the form of illustrated journal entries written by student Greg Heffley.

Enid Blyton Mysteries

Time does not diminish the popularity of these ideal The Famous Five and Secret Seven crew are still very popular in our library with well paced plots, great characters and lashings of mystery.

The Minpins by Roald Dahl

This is a wonderful story about the adventures of Little Billy and the world he discovers beyond his garden gate. Billy finds himself in a fantasy world in the forest surrounded by The Minpins - tiny people who live inside the trees. The Library has an extensive Roald Dahl collection including favourites such as The Twits, Matilda and The BFG.
